THIS ASSOCIATION GIVES PROTECTION TO AUTO OWNERS

The National Automobiles' Protective association of Cleveland, Ohio, with southern headquarters at Memphis, has arranged to establish offices and a service station in Pine Bluff, and will give automobile owners of Jefferson county opportunity to enjoy the protection and service provided by the association.

This association, which has Arkansas headquarters at Little Rock and offices in every city in the country, renders a unique service. In the first place, members are furnished with an attractive metal tag, which is said to be so highly respected that automobile thieves refrain from tampering with cars to which it is attached, realizing that the association is relentless in pursuing and prosecuting them.

If a member's car breaks down in the county, the association's service station in Pine Bluff tows it in free of charge.

There is also a legal department, and if a member's car is smashed by some other car, the association's attorney represents the members without costs and collects damages. If the member's car collides with another the same attorney handles the member's case without expense to him.

A bond of $1,000 is made with the United States Fidelity & Guaranty company for each member to insure that the association will carry out its contract.

TANK WILL NOT CLIMB PIKE'S PEAK

Colorado Springs, Colo., April 16.—The attempt to ascend Pike's Peak in a battle tank was abandoned today. The tank broke down late yesterday at a altitude of 11,200 feet and owing to the difficulty of repairing it at that point the attempt to reach the top was given up.

GERMAN ASSEMBLY WILL REJECT AN UNJUST TREATY

Eberts Declares Peace Must Be One Of Lasting Understanding.

Copenhagen, April 16.—According to a dispatch from Weimar, President Ebert, of Germany, has addressed the following Easter message to the national assembly:

"The national assembly expressed unanimously, on April 10, the expectation that the government would agree only to a peace based on understanding and conciliation and would reject any treaty which would sacrifice the present and future of the German people and the world.

"I welcome this pronouncement as a declaration of the inflexible will of the German people, that the coming people shall be a peace of lasting understanding the conciliation among the nations.

"The national assembly and the government are working with the devotion and energy to fulfill the great task of giving peace, bread, work and a new constitution to a great nation. The task is difficult to fulfill as long as those who have it in their power to give the world peace allow themselves to be dominated by feelings of hatred and revenge and by means of the hunger blockade, and by threatening our annihilation are driving the German people to despair."

Denounces Disturbers.
President Ebert denounced the internal disturbers, of the country whose action, he said, "threatens to completely destroy our economic life."

"The yearning of the masses for human dignity," he continued, "is no excuse for a handful of disorderly agitators who systematically endeavor to disturb the construction of the German republic. The new Germany cannot be created by a jump in the dark, which would certainly be a jump into the abyss. A bolshevik dictatorship of the proletariat minority would certainly ruin industrial Germany in a few months. A speedy external peace, based on understanding and a league of nations is a vital question for us but no less does our salvation rest on the necessities for peace and work at home. I therefore in this grave hour exhort all classes of our people to cease tearing one another to pieces. Win a victory over yourselves; open your eyes and see the abyss."

EVANGELIST MAKES GOOD PROGRESS

The meetings at the First Christian church are progressing interestingly. Evangelist H. E. Steele has made a deep and profound impression upon all who have heard him. He has preached nightly to audiences that have been deeply interested in his sermons. Tonight his subject will be "Heartfelt Religion."

Last night a large crowd heard his sermon on "God's Emancipation Proclamation." Large plans are being laid for the services for the remaining nights of the week. Every night will be children's night. In addition to the regular sermon there will be a short sermon to children.

The members of the church have planned to make Sunday a most interesting day. There will be a big Bible School rally on that day. A large bouquet of flowers will be given to the oldest one present, and a picture to the largest family present.

COMPLETE REPORT OF KOREAN REVOLT FOR AMERICANS

Japs Hire Thugs To Attack Foreigners After Dark.

By The Associated Press.

Shanghai, March 20.—The Korean insurrection, announced as a passive revolution against Japanese rule, will be brought to the attention of the American government in a series of graphically written reports. One of these has just been read by a correspondent of The Associated Press. It was written by an American and recites the sensational events from March 1 when the revolt began, until March 15, when the report was started on its way to the American minister at Peking. According to this story, the Koreans who sought publicly to demonstrate their demands for independence were violently treated, scores being killed and hundreds injured. The report summarizes these features of the insurrection as follows:

The revolution began Saturday afternoon March 1, in many large cities in Korea, and spread like wildfire to the country. It was well planned, the plotters representing all classes. A proclamation of independence signed by 33 men had previously been issued.

Scores Are Killed.
In Seoul and Pyong Yang and other cities where foreigners resided the military abstained from firing on the crowds, but in the rural district violence of the most terrible description has been practiced. Unresisting crowds have been fired upon, scores of persons killed and hundreds wounded. Churches have been wrecked, private homes entered and young men and school girls, in particular, dragged off to prison where most of them have been flogged and a few held for trial.

"Here in Pyong Yang where the treatment of the people has been much milder than in the country, I have personally witnessed or heard directly from witnesses of so many terrible scenes that I can hardly bear to write them.

"Five seminary students, men, who had just arrived in Pyong Yang that morning, while quietly resting in their rooms, were taken to the police station and although protesting their innocence of plotting against the government, were given 29 lashes applied at full strength.

"Two girls were dragged by the hair from a house near the mission hospital, tied to a telegraph post by their hair, horribly beaten by deputized firemen and then led off to jail.

Aged Man Beaten.
"One man 75 years old was caught by the soldiers and beaten and kicked until he could not walk. Then he was dragged off to jail. Before he had gone 400 yards another squad of soldiers repeated the performance, and at the jail, where the punishment was continued, the victim collapsed and was sent home in a 'ricksha.'"

"While the crowds were parading the streets the police and soldiers ran their weapons deliberately into unresisting bystanders because they happened to be in the way."

"In front of the prefect's office, one defenseless Korean was run down and killed by two firemen armed with pikes. The corpse was dragged along the ground and away by the slayers."

"Old men, women and children have been indiscriminately abused, beaten, cut down with swords, struck by firemen armed with pikes, officially flogged at the police station, pierced by bayonets, and never a man has resisted the military. The passive revolt has been true to its name here."

Foreigners in Danger.

"Because we foreigners have seen all, we are not only persona non grata to the Japanese, but in real danger of our lives. It is reported that hired thugs are wandering about the city at night to waylay whom they may. The foreigners may be attacked and injured or killed by these men. If they are the government will promptly disavow the acts but the objectionable individuals will, nevertheless, be out of the way. It is becoming increasingly questionable whether we foreigners can remain here during the continuance of the trouble."

LIBRARY NOTES.

Mrs. Higginbotham subscribed to the Red Cross magazine, for the reading room at the library and also the Christian Observer, the Presbyterian family newspaper.

A few new books added are: "The Reclaimers," by Margaret Hill McCarter, a romance of the sage bush country, in west Kansas. "The Golden Slipper," and other problems for Violet Strange, by Anne Katherine Green, author of "The Leavenworth Case."

Danger and other stories by A. Conan Doyle, a new volume of Conan Doyle stories, in all the veins of which he is reckoned master.

"Desert Gold," and "The Rainbow Trail" by Zane Grey.

"The Rim of the Desert" by Ada W. Anderson, is a dramatic, well-rounded narrative, crowded with anecdote and adventure, "The Sage Busher" by Emerson Hough, a duplicate copy of K. by Mary Roberts Rinehart, and Phoebe, by Eleanor Gates.

Mrs. S. Levine donated a number of books to the library, among them a set of G. A. Henty's books for boys. Rabbi Goldenstein donated a book entitled Jewish Service in the Synagogue and Home, by Lewis N. Demilitz.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol, added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients in a large bottle at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

Whil gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. adv.

C. O. WILLIAMS AND FAMILY RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Williams and their two children have removed to Pine Bluff from Little Rock, and are making their home at 918 West Twentieth street. They resided here before, going to Little Rock several years ago, when Mr. Williams was made state plant engineer for the Southwestern Bell Telephone company, with offices in the Donaghey building. Returning to Pine Bluff, Mr. Williams becomes associated with the Smart Auto company.

"We'd rather live in Pine Bluff than in any other place," Mr. Williams said yesterday. "I have had opportunity to learn about every town in the state, and I believe Pine Bluff is more prosperous, is making a better progress, and a better place to live than any other city in the state."

SIMPLE SERVICES FOR MRS. HEARST

San Francisco, April 16.—Simple services, attended by numerous state and municipal officials, including a committee of the state legislature, marked the funeral today of Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst, mother of William Randolph Hearst, the publisher.

The services included private exercises at Mrs. Hearst's home in Pleasanton, near here, a ceremony at Grace Cathedral here and another private ceremony at Cypress Lawn cemetery where the body is to lie in the family mausoleum beside that of Mrs. Hearst's husband, George Hearst, United States senator from California. The Right Rev. William Ford Nichols, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of California, officiated at the services.

JOE FAILLA AND SON IN NEW HOME

Joe Failla & Sons, wholesale and retail fruit and produce dealers, have removed into the old Anheuser-Busch building, on the southeast corner of Third and Main. This building was recently purchased by Harry Hanf, and is now undergoing extensive alterations. Included in the improvements is an extension of the cold storage room, doubling the capacity.

MILLS NOW CAN FURNISH FLOUR

F. T. DeShong, state representative of the Arkadelphia Milling company, was here yesterday in conference with Kientz Brothers' company, local distributors for the Arkadelphia company's flour. The Arkadelphia Milling company contracted to sell its entire output to the government last year, and withdrew from the market, as it manufactures no mixed stuff. Mr. DeShong says his company, having served Uncle Sam's fighting men faithfully, is now prepared to resume its service to the general public, and that Pine Bluff territory grocers will be supplied by Kientz Brothers' company with all the Arkadelphia Milling company flour necessary to supply the demand for those brands.

REVOLUTIONARY TROOPS MUSTER

New York, April 16.—Advices received here today from representatives of General Felix Diaz, the Mexican revolutionary leader, announce that an intensive concentration of revolutionary troops is taking place in the states of Chiapas, Tabasco, Vera Cruz, Puebla and Michoacan, preliminary to a general offensive against the forces. Roberto Gayon, secretary to General Aureliano Blanquet, who recently arrived in Mexico after eluding Carranza forces who had been detailed to prevent his landing, announced today that General Diaz had sent official notice to all revolutionary forces operating in the different Mexican states of Blanquet's arrival and of his commission as second in command of the national reorganization army.
